The one time i thought i made my mind i fell so far behind I stuggled for air
C#maj7 G#m F#m C#m
And one day I'll get so far away, I won't even dare to say that I've been running from you
E F#m B
Now time, you're times a wastin' on me

C#m G#m F#m C#m

C#m G#m F#m C#m E F#m B
It's a long road back to where we start, the tiny vessels and shooting stars
It's a long road back to where we met though everything I've forgotten to forget

So put on your hat and your dancing shoes, it's the love you had for the life you choose
When no one knows what's really be coming your way
And no one knows if no one goes where no one has been running away

It's a long road back to where we start, the tiny vessels and shooting stars
It's a long road back to where we met though everything I've forgotten to forget
